

Statement of Purpose

My name is [REDACTED], born on [REDACTED], in [REDACTED], Nepal. I hold a Nepalese passport ([REDACTED]). I was raised in a very close-knit family environment that provides immense emotional support. I have consistently demonstrated academic excellence, completing my Secondary Education Examination (Grade 10) from [REDACTED], [REDACTED] GPA of 3.45 in 2021. In 2023, I graduated from [REDACTED] a GPA of 3.47 in Grade 12, majoring in [REDACTED].

Growing up in [REDACTED] a community rooted in cultural traditions but struggling with limited access to education, healthcare, and economic opportunities, I developed a passion for social work. My family's annual income of [REDACTED], comes from my parents' [REDACTED] and business. This financial support will enable me to pursue my educational journey in Australia, focusing on social improvement and contributing to my community's development.

Australia is renowned for its high-quality education system, innovative teaching methods, students friendly schemes like ESOS act, TPS, OSHC and state-of-the-art facilities, making it an ideal destination. I have chosen Sydney Metropolitan Institute of Technology for its excellent Bachelor of Social Work program, known for its hands-on approach and practical experience. Sydney Met's focus on social justice and its strong ties to the local community match my career goals. The program's hands-on training through field placements will give me the skills I need to be an effective social worker. Also, Sydney Met's diverse environment will help me understand social issues from a global perspective. The helpful student services and experienced teachers at Sydney Met will make sure I get a well-rounded education. Overall, Sydney Met provides the perfect mix of learning and practical training, making it the best place for me to study for my Bachelor of Social Work and reach my career goals.

Completing a Bachelor of Social Work at Sydney Met will significantly enhance my career prospects. Through coursework and practical experience, I will learn how to advocate for vulnerable populations, develop effective community programs, and influence social policies for positive change. The hands-on internships and field placements will provide me with real-world experience, preparing me to address complex social issues professionally. After completing my studies, I aim to return to Nepal and contribute to the social sector, working in roles such as a social worker, community worker, or family support worker, ultimately advancing social justice and community well-being in various NGOs, INGOs, schools, and community projects. It will allow me to connect with other professionals and organizations focused on social justice, giving me useful insights and chances to work together. Overall, this program will give me a strong start for my future as a caring and effective social worker.

I have a strong academic background in management studies, which has helped me develop important organizational and leadership skills. These skills will be very useful in my future work as a social worker. I am a dedicated and eager learner, and I believe that studying at Sydney Met will help me grow both personally and professionally. I am excited about the chance to study at Sydney Met and earn a Bachelor of Social Work. I am confident that the knowledge, skills, and experiences I gain from this program will help me make a real difference in society and reach my goal of becoming a caring and effective social worker. I also scored [REDACTED] on the PTE test, which I took on [REDACTED].

Thank you for considering my application. I am genuinely committed to this path and look forward to the opportunities this program will provide.

Regards,
